

OBSERVATION/REFLECTION

31, 8, 12

MISS ANGELA.

Miss Angela came to teach the class, and I wanted to observe her.

What I noticed about her approach was that she was tough but fair, she doesn't allow the students to lead and she is VERY big on establishing respectful behavior.

Most importantly, she lets the students know what is expected of them - and what she doesn't expect/accept.

The swinging/squeaky door has annoyed me SO much but I never felt OK about telling kids not to open and shut the door - though she did - problem solved.

In terms of controlling the class - giving instructions and approaching ~~to~~ the students she made sure NOT to raise her voice, but used hand gestures instead and made sure not to talk over the kids.

Angela had mentioned that the kids will tire me out in no time, and that I need to conserve my energy and voice. I agree - I am obviously losing my voice and am feeling incredibly run down.
